

Bionomics Announces Key Leadership Updates to Drive U.S.-Focused Transformation and Next Stage of Strategic Growth

July 3, 2023

- Alan Fisher appointed Chair of the Board of Directors
- Tim Cunningham joins as Chief Financial Officer

ADELAIDE, Australia and CAMBRIDGE, Mass., July 03, 2023 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Bionomics Limited (Nasdaq: BNOX | ASX: BNO) (Bionomics or Company), a clinical-stage biotechnology company developing novel, first-in-class, allosteric ion channel modulators to treat patients suffering from serious central nervous system (CNS) disorders with high unmet medical need, today announced key leadership updates to drive its ongoing transformation to a U.S.-focused company, streamline its allocation of capital, and support its next stage of strategic growth.

Alan Fisher, currently a non-executive member of the Board since 1 September 2016 and Chair of the Audit & Risk Committee, has been appointed Non-Executive Chair of the Board, effective from 1 July 2023. Mr. Fisher succeeds Errol De Souza, Ph.D., who remains on the Board as a Non-Executive Director.

Mr. Fisher commented, "On behalf of the Board, I would like to express my excitement for Bionomics' prospects and confidence in the team being assembled. I would also like to thank Errol for his contributions and support during an important period in the Company's transition from an early-stage development organization to a biotechnology company with multiple late-stage product candidates. I am eager to lead Bionomics' Board at this pivotal point for the Company and look forward to working closely with Spyros and the management team in my new role."

Tim Cunningham of Danforth Associates has been appointed Chief Financial Officer, effective 1 July 2023. This appointment is in continuation to the ongoing expansion of the leadership team that began in 2023 with the appointment of Julie Kerner, Ph.D., as Senior Vice President of Business Operations, and Atul R. Mahableshwarkar, M.D., as the Acting Chief Medical Officer. The Company has also engaged Francisco Bejar as a strategic advisor to head the business development efforts in the U.S. and abroad, whilst Connor Bernstein, Vice President, Strategy and Development, steps down from his role with effect from 30 June 2023.

"With the addition of multiple U.S.-based and highly accomplished industry executives, we believe we have positioned Bionomics for sustainable growth as we continue to advance our corporate evolution," said Spyros Papapetropoulos, M.D., Ph.D., President and CEO of Bionomics. "Collectively, Tim, Julie, and Atul bring over 50+ years of experience in the biopharma sector, and diverse expertise in developing and commercializing drug products. I am confident that their complementary skill sets will be instrumental in leading the Company into a new era focused on the fiscally efficient advancement of our late-stage programs. I would like to thank Connor for his contributions to the Company and wish him well for the future, as well as Adrian Hinton, Acting CFO for the last four years who will continue supporting the Company as a Financial Controller. In addition, I look forward to working with Alan in his new role as Chair of the Board and would like to thank Errol for his many contributions to Bionomics."

About Bionomics Limited

Bionomics (ASX:BNO, NASDAQ:BNOX) is a clinical-stage biotechnology company developing novel, first-in-class, allosteric ion channel modulators to treat patients suffering from serious central nervous system ("CNS") disorders with high unmet medical need. Bionomics is advancing its lead drug candidate, BNC210, an oral, proprietary, selective negative allosteric modulator of the  $\alpha 7$  nicotinic acetylcholine receptor, for the acute treatment of Social Anxiety Disorder (SAD) and chronic treatment of Post-Traumatic Stress Disorder (PTSD). Beyond BNC210, Bionomics has a strategic partnership with Merck & Co., Inc. (known as MSD outside the United States and Canada) with two drugs in early-stage clinical trials for the treatment of cognitive deficits in Alzheimer's disease and other central nervous system conditions.
